As a non-profit organization, Midwest Young Artists relies on contributions to fulfill its mission. Do you have ties to foundations, corporations, or individuals who may be interested in supporting MYA Programs and activities?

- Yes, please contact me to discuss.
 Not at this time.

Join the MYA Volunteer Team!

Volunteerism thrives at MYA and allows us to offer exceptional performance and concert opportunities! From assisting seating auditions to designing benefit invitations or directing traffic at the May Music & Fun Fest, volunteers perform important services to enhance our overall programs. MYA's Volunteer Coordinator, Gena Andreasen, will be sending you an email this summer with a link to a calendar with requested volunteer help posted for the season. There will also be additional information about volunteering, especially for new parents, at our Parent Party on September 8, 2012. More details to come via email this summer!

- I understand that MYA has a family volunteer requirement of 4 hours/year for each student in MYA, and agree that our family (student, parent or other family members) will fulfill this requirement sometime during the year.
- In lieu of volunteering, our family would prefer to be invoiced an extra $100 to cover our family volunteer requirement.

Returning this form with tuition deposit represents a commitment to participate in Midwest Young Artists program(s) during the entire Season 2012-2013. MYA will expect your enrollment in both fall and spring semesters and will not fill your place in your current ensemble with another student. The tuition deposit will be applied to your tuition invoice for the season as the final installment. The tuition deposit is neither refundable nor transferable should you change your enrollment plan for Season 2012-2013. Please review "Your Responsibilities as an MYA Member" shown in the attachment and confirm that you understand your responsibilities, including paying the tuition bills.
