

Chicago Chamber Music Workshop

Midwest Young Artists

summer
MUSIC
festival

July 2 - 21, 2012

A three week intensive chamber music experience for piano and strings on Chicago's beautiful North Shore.

A First Class Faculty

Includes outstanding, nationally known professional performers and musicians.

(please see reverse)

A Nurturing and Supportive Environment

There will be a caring staff on hand 24 hours a day.

First Class Locations and Facilities

Rehearsals, lessons, classes, and performances will mainly be held at the beautiful and historical MYA Center. Residential students stay in air-conditioned dormitories with one roommate at nearby Lake Forest College. Convenient to the Metra Train, both locations are easily accessible to Ravinia, downtown Chicago, and Millennium Park.

A Comprehensive Music Experience

While there is an emphasis on chamber music and private instruction, the students will gain experience in orchestra performance, courses in Music Theory and Music History, master classes, and an optional Sonata Class.

Why Study Chamber Music at MYA?

- *Winner of the Chamber Music America's Heidi Castleman Award for Excellence in Chamber Music Teaching
- *Awarded the Chamber Music Program of the year many times by the Illinois Council of Orchestras
- *Several medal winners in the Junior Division of the Fischhoff National Chamber Music Competition
