

Chicago Jazz Workshop

July 23-27, 2012

The Chicago Jazz Workshop is designed with the aspiring creative jazz musician in mind. Students are placed in jazz combos where the focus is ensemble interaction, accompaniment, and improvisation through the study of jazz standards. Students also attend daily theory classes and technique classes. Master classes are given throughout the week, allowing students to explore the unique aspects of their particular instrument. The ultimate goal of the camp is to help students gain a better understanding of how to control and manipulate their musical environment.

For students in grades 6-12

Location

MYA Center at Fort Sheridan
878 Lyster Rd.
Highwood, IL 60040
(847) 926-9898

Tuition

Includes participation in Evening Jazz Ensembles
$700 (Non-Residential)

Date

July 23-27, 2012

Faculty

Chris Madsen, saxophone: Director of the MYA Big Band and Jazz Orchestra, Midwest Young Artists; Professor of Jazz Studies, Northwestern University

Jarrard Harris, saxophone: Director of Jazz Combos and the MYA Jazz Ensemble, Midwest Young Artists; faculty, Columbia College of Chicago

Nic Meyer, saxophone: Director of Jazz Programs, New Trier High School; Former Jazz Director, MYA

Joan Hickey, piano: Extensive performer and teacher throughout the Chicago area.

Joel Spencer, drums

Frank Portolese, guitar

Erik Hochberg, bass

Additional trumpet and trombone faculty to be announced

For more information visit www.mya.org/summer/

Daily schedule and faculty are subject to change. For updates please visit www.mya.org/members/calendar.php